The Proclaimers — Spinning Around in the Air

Charlie & Craig Reid

The strum that comes in midway through Verse 1 is D DUD D DUD (in 6/8).

Intro I Bb I Bb I Verse 1 F7 Cm Let me give praise to your sparkling eyes and your coloured hair $\mathsf{Cm}$ Bb Let me spend ages on poetic phrases to show I care Bb Let me go grazing on dapple green pastures where you're the mare Let me rephrase that, I think there's a better line there... F7 Spinning around in the air Verse 2 Cm F7 Let me donate something to a kids charity of your choice CmF7 Bb For you I would willingly be a worse traitor than William Joyce $\mathsf{Cm}$ If I could sing I would sing you a song in Sam Cooke's voice CmLet me rephrase that, I think there's a better line there... F7 Spinning around in the air Bridge Bb Are you happy now say yeah yeah yeah Are you really happy now say yeah yeah yeah Tell me where it hurts, it hurts there and there and there Adverbs and nouns, juicy and round F7 F7 Cm Bb

Instrumental

Bb | Cm | F7 | Bb |

Spinning around in the air_____

```
Bridge
                      Bb
Eb
 Are you happy now say yeah yeah yeah
Are you really happy now say yeah yeah yeah
                                  Gm
 Tell me where it hurts, it hurts there and there and there
Adverbs and nouns, juicy and round
Spinning around in the air_____
Verse 3
                                          G7
C
                    Dm
                                                   C
Madame Onassis took Gary's old glasses and put them on G7
                                                          C
                             Dm
She said, I see ships and she started to quip about old Boston
I climbed over houses to climb upon you, what did I do wrong
C (one strum)
                        Dm (one strum)
                                                   G7
Let me rephrase that, I think there's a better line there
Spinning around in the air
Outro
C | Dm | G7 | C | (x4 to finish – last time hold G7 for 3 bars)
```